Letters

Dear Editor,

My Grandad can mend clocks, and I've decided that I'd like to be a clock mender, too. My ambition is to get a Grandfather clock.

IAN McLAUGHLIN, Rickmansworth.

They're very expensive, Ian — so I suppose you'll have to buy it on TICK! . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

Every week my Mum reads your comic. Naturally, the feature she likes best is Mum's the Word. She particularly liked the story about the lad's school report. She says that if my reports ever get that bad, she might well try the same trick as your character did.

PETER BURTON, Guildford.

You have been warned, eh? . . . Editor.

Dear Professor Cube,

I don't understand why you want to get rid of Frankie. He might be clumsy, but it's not really his fault. Anyway, if you do not like him why did you build him in the first place?

ANNAR BHARMAL, Wembley.

Why did I build him? That's what I'm always asking myself! Sob! . . . Professor Cube.

Dear Editor,

I wish you could put some of the stories in WHOOPEE! / SHIVER 'n' SHAKE on television. I'm sure it would be a great thrill for readers.

STEVEN BROWN, Malvern.

We'd get a kick out of it, too, pal! Of course, Ad Lad would have to be for ITV only . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

I am mad on cars, and that is just one of the reasons why I enjoy reading Creepy Car so much. I reckon I can recognise the make of any British car I see, but I don't know the make of Creepy Car.

JOHN LAYBOURNE, Hull.

Well, it's not a Rolls-Royce "Silver GHOST" that's for sure . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

In the World Wide Weirdies series the pictures are always very colourful. Do we have to colour our entries?

LINDSAY BROWN, Stirling.

No need, Lindsay. Just be sure that your name and address is clearly written on the drawing. I'm afraid lots of entries arrive without this vital information . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

One of my hobbies is cricket, and the player I enjoy watching the most is Tony Greig. Please will you print a photograph of him for me?

ANDREW CHANTRY, Grimsby.

Here's Tony, who is now sunning himself in Australia with the England cricket team. Let's hope he's hitting the opposition for six, too (no hard feelings, WHOOPEE! fans down under, but the Ashes are at stake after all!). . . Editor.

OSSIE

HI, pals! Lots of readers have asked me what are the top features in WHOOPEE! / SHIVER 'n' SHAKE. Well, seeing as I'm the guy who does all the mathematics from your voting coupons, I can provide the answers.

Last week, there were four series challenging for the No.1 spot . . . FRANKIE STEIN, SCARED-STIFF SAM, LOLLY POP, and SCREAM INN . . . but The BUMPKIN BILLIONAIRES held them off, they're still the tops with you all.

Dear Ossie,

A reader wrote and told you he had collected nineteen postcards. Well, I can do better than that, I've collected fifty five so far.

NIGEL BOWNAS, Nr. Skipton.

Any advances on that . . . yes . . . Ossie.

Dear Ossie,

A reader whose hobby is collecting postcards claimed a total of nineteen. I also collect them, and I have eighty eight. My favourite card is one from Cornwall.

RICHARD HUGHES, Preston.

Reckon I'll be the champ myself soon, judging by the number of postcards I'VE received from title-claiming collectors . . . Ossie.

Dear Ossie,

As I live in a newsagent's shop, I'm always looking at the comics. Reading your feature, I noted that Old Thingy and your Dad don't like long hair. Well, don't take any notice of their big hints . . . because I think your hair is smashing the way it is.

JULIA JONES, Cardiff. (Here's a pic of me!)

Smashing! And that applies to your advice, your photo, and you! . . . Ossie.
